Temple Meadow turns 125!

Dear Parents/Carers

On Friday 8th December 2023, Temple Meadow officially turns 125 years old! To celebrate this remarkable anniversary, we are inviting pupils to arrive in school dressed as a Victorian child or in black and white.

During the day, pupils will be stepping back in history and experiencing life as a Victorian school child. They will take part in a range of lessons such as arithmetic, handwriting and sewing in the style of the Victorian era. As well as all of this, each year group will become experts on an inspirational Victorian figure, creating an art and writing outcome.

Furthermore, we would like to invite adults (Parents/Carers, Grandparents etc) to send their child to school with any memories, photos etc that we can use to celebrate the history of Temple Meadow.

In addition, on Friday 15th December 2023, we are inviting Parents/Carers to come into school between 3:30-4pm to celebrate the work pupils completed during the previous week.

Entrance to this will be via the Dance Studio steps located by the Clifton Street car park entrance (the same entrance used for STAR Assembly).

Yours sincerely,

Ms Walsh
Headteacher
