World Book Day Update

Dear Parents/Carers,

As you are already aware, this year, Temple Meadow will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 8th March 2024.

We have taken on board parent voice and feedback from last year and this year, we would like to invite your child to come to school on Friday 8th March 2024 either dressed as a book character or in pyjamas, in line with our school's traditional 'bedtime story' theme.

During the day, pupils will be exploring the author that their class is named after and will be receiving a special delivery in their classrooms. During the afternoon, the teachers in Years 1-6 will be swapping classes and sharing a book to a different class. We will also be launching a whole school reading competition, with two prizes on offer.

Finally, all pupils will be given a World Book Day token, which can be exchanged for a free book from the World Book Day range, or used as a £1 voucher off any other book at participating retailers

Alongside this, we would like to set up a parent book swap library, where adults can drop off a book they have finished and swap it with a book donated by someone else to take home and read. If you do have any unwanted adult books, please do donate them to the School Office for my attention.

Yours sincerely,

ReDale
