Dear Pupils, Parents & Carers

WRITING CURRICULUM CHAMPION APPLICATIONS ARE OPEN

Are you passionate about English? Do you enjoy writing? Are you passionate and dependable? If yes, then this could be the school job for you!

This year, I am expanding the role of the pupil newspaper team, widening the role to the Writing Curriculum Champions. This role will be open to all pupils in Years 1-6 and will include:

- Taking an active role in the pupil newspaper team, writing articles for the termly newspapers
- Engaging with the Pupil Parliament in key agenda items
- Being an advocate for writing within the classroom
- Maintaining resources within the classroom and liaising with Miss Dale regarding needs
- Designing and running competitions across school
- Providing pupil voice in relation to the writing curriculum and classroom experiences.

Personal specification - you will need to be:

- Passionate
- Dedicated
- Reliable and dependable
- Good at communicating
- Creative
- A confident writer
- A team player
- Ambitious.

I am looking for one Writing Curriculum Champion from each class. If you are appointed, then you cannot hold any other subject ambassador role at the same time; this includes Head Boy or Head Girl.

If you think that this is the job for you, you need to complete the attached job application form. Forms need to be returned to the School Office no later than Friday 29th September 2023.

The chosen Writing Curriculum Champions will be announced in Star Assembly and shared in our whole school newsletter.

I look forward to receiving your applications.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Dale
Deputy Headteacher & DSL
